General Data Protection Regulations

Village Golf and Sports Club

Privacy Policy

Village Golf and Sports Club [the Club] is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For any personal data you provide for the purposes of your membership, the Club is the Data Controller and is responsible for storing and processing that data in a fair, lawful, secure and transparent way. We process this data on the lawful basis of consent.

What personal data we hold

We hold the information you provide when you apply for membership of the Club. This consists of your name, address, e-mail address (if applicable) and telephone number(s). We also ask for the date of birth for any children under the age of 16 at the time of their application.

Why we need your personal data

The reason the Club needs your data is to be able to administer your membership. We use your data for:-

- processing membership forms and payments;
- inviting you to renew your membership;
- sharing data with committee members to provide information about membership renewals;
- issuing club newsletters;
- notifying you of competitions, AGM meetings, lost property, club activities and events;
- sharing summary or anonymised data as condition of grant funding, e.g. with Local Authorities, Charities or Sponsors; and
- analysing summary or anonymised data to monitor club trends.

Who we share your personal data with

The Club does not supply the personal data it holds to any other third party. The Club does not store or transfer your personal data outside of the UK.

How long we hold your personal data

We will hold your personal data for as long as you are a member of the Club. Data is updated every year on annual membership forms. Any personal data we hold about you will be securely destroyed after five years of inactivity.

Your rights regarding your personal data

You have the right at any time to request access to, correction or deletion of your personal data; to restrict or object to the processing of your personal data and to the portability of your personal data. You can do this by contacting the Club's Membership Secretary.

You also have the right to complain to the UK's data protection supervisory authority, the Information Commissioner's Office, about the processing of your personal data.
